Problem Statement:

Countries all across the world, no matter how progressive, have a history of women subjugation and ill-treatment. Women have always had to rebel and fight for their rights. No wonder, their efforts have made a slight difference, however it cannot be denied that the goal of equality is still far off.

Women's empowerment is not only about her getting employed but more importantly about the women's sense of self-worth; their right to have and to determine choices; their right to have access to opportunities and resources; their right to have power to control their own lives, both within and outside the home; Financial independence plays a key role in instilling self-confidence, dignity and empowers one to fight for themselves. It can serve as a boon for women as they would not have to rely on their male counterparts for their needs, rather would be self-sufficient to provide for themselves.

The goal of the problem is develop a project which aims to uplift the conditions and status of women round the globe by making them financially independent with dedicated, quality courses and to improve the representation of them in high-impact organisations for a better and more inclusive future.

Solution:

Gender Equality is among the top five Development Goals of the United Nations to achieve a better and sustainable future for all. It is not only a fundamental right but a necessary foundation for a peaceful and prosperous world.

The briskly escalating economy demands more educated and self-potential women which makes them totally independent and earns them equal dignity, and pay as their husband or their male counterpart and makes them a breadwinner.
